

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

CAPITAL PURE ASSETS, LTD.,
 Plaintiff(s),
 v.
 CC TECHNOLOGY CORPORATION,
 Defendant(s).

Case No. 2:24-cv-00680-NJK<sup>1</sup>

ORDER

On April 29, 2025, the Court held Counter-Defendants in contempt for failing to make the $14,000 initial payment as ordered. Docket No. 72 at 4-5; see also Docket No. 71. Pending before the Court now is Counter-Defendants' notice of compliance that the $14,000 initial payment was made later that same day, April 29, 2025. Docket No. 74. In light of that notice, Counter-Defendants' contempt has been purged, no fines will be assessed, and the status conference set for May 6, 2025, is vacated. It appears the case may now be primed for dismissal, see Docket No. 57-2 at ¶ 2(b), but the Court understands the parties may dispute whether jurisdiction should be retained after dismissal. Counsel must promptly confer on these issues. Either a stipulation of dismissal or simultaneous counter-motion practice must be filed on May 9, 2025.<sup>2</sup>

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: May 5, 2025

 Nancy J. Koppe
 United States Magistrate Judge

<sup>2</sup> If counter-motions are filed, counsel must ensure they include fulsome argument and citation to appropriate legal authority regarding the specific issues in dispute.
